ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

On October 28, 2010, we entered an order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed as abandoned because appellants had relocated without providing a forwarding address. Our October 28 order, as well as our September 8, 2010, order regarding appellants' representation, were both returned to us by the United States Postal Service as being undeliverable due to the lack of a forwarding address. Because appellants have not provided us with their current address and have left this court unable to communicate with them, we conclude that appellants have abandoned their appeal. Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹

¹Additionally, appellant Panther Valley Funding, d/b/a Panther Investments, had previously been cautioned by this court on September 8, 2010, that it may not appear in proper person or be represented by a nonattorney, Salman v. Newell, 110 Nev. 1333, 885 P.2d 607 (1994), and no counsel has since appeared on its behalf.
