ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order granting summary judgment in an action by the respondent lender to obtain a judgment on an amount due and owing on a credit line account. Based upon our review of the record on appeal, we conclude that the district court did not err in granting summary judgment in favor of respondent. Summary judgment is appropriate when there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. NRCP 56. This court reviews an order granting summary judgment de novo. Schroeder v. Ely City Mun. Water Dep't, 112 Nev. 73, 910 P.2d 260 (1996).

Here, appellant failed to set forth facts showing that there was a genuine issue for trial. In particular, appellant did not dispute that he entered into a loan agreement with respondent, he received the proceeds from the loan, and he failed to repay the loan as agreed. Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.
