DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from an amended judgment of conviction that dismissed one count of child abuse and neglect with substantial bodily harm and vacated the sentence for that count. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kenneth C. Cory, Judge.

Because it appeared that appellant was not aggrieved by the entry of the amended judgment of conviction, we ordered appellant's counsel to show cause why this appeal should be not dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. See NRS 177.015 (only an aggrieved party may appeal). Appellant's counsel has not responded. Having reviewed the documents submitted in this appeal, we conclude appellant is not an aggrieved party and we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal. Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
