

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

NENITA G. HANLEY,
Appellant,
vs.
JEFFREY HANLEY,
Respondent.

No. 55623

FILED

JUL 20 2010

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a district court decree of annulment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Court Division, Clark County; Sandra L. Pomrenze, Judge.

Appellant argues that the district court erred by entering the decree annulling her marriage to respondent. The appellate record shows that when appellant married respondent, appellant's prior marriage was voidable but had not yet been annulled. Thus, the marriage between appellant and respondent was void because appellant was still married to a living husband at the time. NRS 125.290(2). Accordingly, the district court did not abuse its discretion by entering the decree of annulment, see Irving v. Irving, 122 Nev. 494, 498, 134 P.3d 718, 721 (2006) (holding that annulment proceedings are reviewed for an abuse of discretion), and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
