ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR PROHIBITION

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus challenges a district court order dismissing a consolidated tort action. Having reviewed the petition and its attachments, we are not persuaded that extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. Specifically, writ relief is not available when the petitioner has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law, such as an appeal. NRS 34.170; Pan v. Dist. Ct., 120 Nev. 222, 88 P.3d 840 (2004). Here, petitioner's arguments are properly raised in an appeal from the order dismissing his complaints.¹ Accordingly, we ¹We note that petitioner currently has three appeals docketed in this court, Docket Nos. 55225, 55570, and 55670, all arising from the same underlying district court action.

ORDER the petition DENIED.
