ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

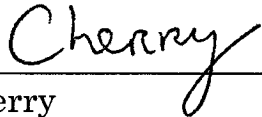

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Donald M. Mosley, Judge.

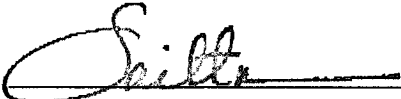

In his petition filed on December 30, 2009, appellant challenged the loss of statutory good time credits. In reviewing the documents before this court, it appeared that appellant may have discharged his sentence, rendering moot any challenge to the loss of credits. See Johnson v. Director, 105 Nev. 314, 317 n.4, 744 P.2d 1047, 1049 n.4 (1989). This court directed the Attorney General to provide information about appellant's current custody status. The Attorney General responded that appellant was discharged from his sentence on ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

September 23, 2010.² Because appellant has discharged his sentence, this appeal is moot. Accordingly, we ²The Attorney General notes that appellant is being held on an unrelated I.C.E. hold. That hold has no bearing upon the loss of credits in this case.

³We have considered the proper person documents submitted in this matter, and we conclude that no relief is warranted for the reason set forth above.
