CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

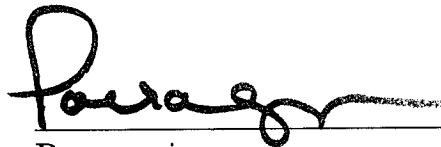

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

On October 19, 2010, appellant filed a motion for an extension of time to file the opening brief. The motion was granted, giving appellant until November 18, 2010, to file and serve the opening brief. On November 19, 2010, appellant filed a second motion for an extension of time. On December 15, 2010, this court denied the November 15 motion as moot, as appellant had failed to file the opening brief by the requested extended date. The December 15 order gave appellant ten days to file the opening brief and cautioned appellant that failure to file it within that time frame could result in the imposition of sanctions. Appellant failed to file the opening brief by that deadline. Thereafter, on January 4, 2011, appellant filed a third motion for an extension of time to file the opening brief, requesting until January 10, 2011, to do so. Again, however, appellant failed to submit the opening brief by that date. Accordingly, we deny appellant's motion as moot, and we
