JUSTIN JAMES SPECTER A/K/A
JUSTIN SPECTER,
Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 55968

FILED

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence.<sup>1</sup> Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kenneth C. Cory, Judge.

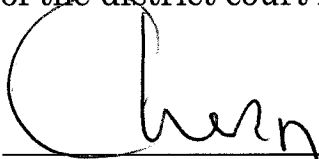

In his motion filed on April 1, 2010, appellant claimed that the special sentence of lifetime supervision was illegal because he was not informed of the effects, terms, full range, and direct consequences of lifetime supervision. This claim fell outside the very narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion to correct an illegal sentence, and appellant failed to demonstrate that the sentence was illegal or that the district court was without jurisdiction in this matter. <sup>1</sup>This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Luckett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

201.230; NRS 193.330. Therefore, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying the motion. Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup>We have reviewed all documents that appellant has submitted in proper person to the clerk of this court in this matter, and we conclude that no relief based upon those submissions is warranted. To the extent that appellant has attempted to present claims or facts in those submissions which were not previously presented in the proceedings below, we have declined to consider them in the first instance.
