and

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Real Party in Interest.

No. 35110

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL AND PETITION

On March 28, 2001, the State filed a joint motion to dismiss the above-entitled matters. The motion explains that the district court case that is the subject of both the pending appeal (Docket No. 34027) and the writ petition (Docket No. 35110) has been resolved through plea negotiations. Further, the motion states that the legal arguments presented in the appeal and the petition have been rendered moot by the entry of a judgment of conviction.

Therefore, "both parties agree to the voluntary dismissal of these matters with each side to bear their own costs."

Good cause appearing, we grant the joint motion, and we hereby ORDER the appeal and the petition dismissed, both parties to bear their own costs.
