DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION

This original petition for a writ of mandamus challenges an order of the district court denying petitioner's motion to dismiss criminal charges. Having reviewed the petition and supporting documents, we are not convinced that our intervention is warranted at this time because petitioners have a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. See NRS 34.170. Specifically, petitioners may appeal in the event that they are convicted. See NRS 177.015. Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
