ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order awarding costs. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Linda Marie Bell, Judge.

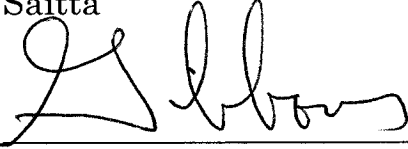

When our preliminary review of the docketing statement and the NRAP 3(g) documents revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, we ordered appellant to show cause, within 15 days, why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Specifically, we noted that a district court's oral order must be written, signed, and filed to be effective. NRCP 58; State, Div. Child & Fam. Servs. v. Dist. Ct., 120 Nev. 445, 92 P.3d 1239 (2004). Here, however, it appeared that the district court had not filed its written order on costs. No file-stamped order was transmitted to this court with the notice of appeal, and the district court docket entries did not reflect that any such costs order was entered. See NRAP 3(g). Further, although respondent's notice of entry indicated that a costs order was filed on June 1, 2010, the signed order attached to respondent's notice of entry was not file-stamped. We cautioned appellant that failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction could result in this court's dismissal of this appeal.

Appellant has failed to respond to this court's show cause order. Accordingly, as appellant has failed to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
