CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY A. Ingersoll
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

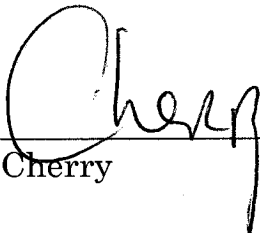

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus sought to compel the district court to rule upon two matters pending in that court. Petitioner thereafter submitted documentation demonstrating that the district court has since ruled on both matters.¹ Under these circumstances, we are not persuaded that extraordinary relief is warranted, see NRAP 21(b)(1); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818

¹We grant petitioner's motion to take judicial notice of the district court's order, copies of which were supplied by petitioner, and we direct the clerk of this court to file petitioner's motion, provisionally received on August 27, 2010.

P.2d 849 (1991), despite petitioner's argument that the issue is capable of repetition yet evading review. Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.²
