ORDER IMPOSING RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE AND DISBARRING
ATTORNEY

This is a petition under SCR 114 to reciprocally discipline attorney Phyllis Joann Bryan, based on discipline imposed upon her in California. Bryan did not file a response to the petition.

Bryan's underlying California disciplinary matter consisted of failure to comply with the conditions of a previous suspension order. Bryan defaulted in the California disciplinary proceedings and was found to have committed misconduct for willfully failing to comply with California Rule of Court 9.20 as previously ordered by the California Supreme Court.<sup>1</sup>

Thereafter, the California Supreme Court ordered Bryan disbarred from the practice of law. She was also ordered to comply with California Court Rule 9.20 and to pay costs of the proceedings.

Bryan failed to inform bar counsel of the discipline as required by SCR 114(1).

SCR 114(4) provides that this court shall impose identical reciprocal discipline unless the attorney demonstrates, or this court finds, that one of four exceptions applies. None of the exceptions is present in this case.

Accordingly, we grant the petition for reciprocal discipline. Attorney Phyllis Joann Bryan is hereby disbarred from the practice of law in this state.<sup>2</sup> Bryan and the State Bar shall comply with SCR 115 and SCR 121.1.

It is so ORDERED.
