ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL
AND SANCTIONING APPELLANT'S ATTORNEY

This is an appeal from a district court judgment in a contract action. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jessie Elizabeth Walsh, Judge.

Despite numerous notices and orders directing appellant's attorney, Brent D. Percival, to file and serve required appeal documents, including the transcript request form and opening brief and appendix, those documents have not been filed in this court.¹ Earlier notices directing Mr. Percival to file those documents warned that failure to file the documents could result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of this appeal. Since the documents have not been filed, we dismiss this appeal.

Additionally, on November 1, 2011, this court entered an order directing Mr. Percival to show cause why a previously imposed $500 sanction should not remain in effect, based on his failure to comply with court orders and directives. Mr. Percival's response to the show cause order was due in this court by no later than November 14, 2011, and to date, no response has been filed. Accordingly, the $500 sanction remains due and Mr. Percival shall have five days from the date of this order to pay the $500 sanction to the Supreme Court Law Library and file proof of such payment in this court. Failure to pay the sanction and provide proof of such will result in the imposition of additional sanctions, including Mr. Percival's referral to the State Bar of Nevada.

It is so ORDERED.
