ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

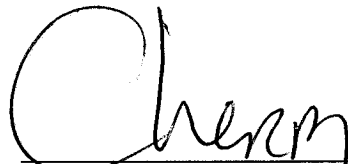

These are proper person appeals from orders of the district court denying motions to correct illegal sentences.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Douglas W. Herndon, Judge. We elect to consolidate these appeals for disposition. NRAP 3(b).

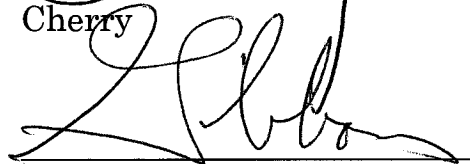

In his motions filed on October 22, 2010, appellant claimed that the presentence report contained mistakes and that he was not given an opportunity to review the presentence report before sentencing or make ¹These appeals have been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the records are sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

corrections. Appellant failed to demonstrate that his sentences were facially illegal and that the district court lacked jurisdiction. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). To the extent that appellant sought to modify his sentences, appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See id. We therefore conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motions. Accordingly, we
