ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion to modify sentence.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Doug Smith, Judge.

In his motion to modify sentence filed on January 12, 2011, appellant claimed that he did not enter a knowing guilty plea, his trial counsel was ineffective, and there was insufficient evidence of his guilt. Appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324

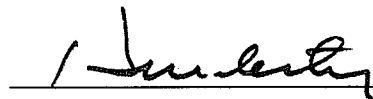

¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

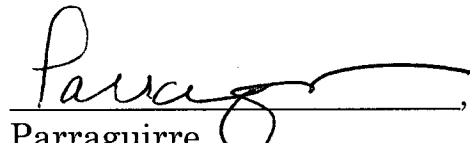

(1996). Therefore, the district court did not err in denying the motion.

Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.²

²We have reviewed all documents that appellant has submitted in proper person to the clerk of this court in this matter, and we conclude that no relief based upon those submissions is warranted. To the extent that appellant has attempted to present claims or facts in those submissions which were not previously presented in the proceedings below, we have declined to consider them in the first instance.
