ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court setting aside a portion of the decree of divorce pursuant to NRCP 60(b).

Having reviewed the record on appeal, we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion. See Cook v. Cook, 112 Nev. 179, 912 P.2d 264 (1996) (recognizing that under NRCP 60(b), the district court has wide discretion in deciding whether to grant or deny a motion to set aside a judgment, and the district court's determination will not be disturbed on appeal absent an abuse of discretion); Milender v. Marcum, 110 Nev. 972, 879 P.2d 748 (1994) (noting that under NRCP 60, a district court may vacate portions of a decree of divorce without setting aside the termination of the marriage); see also Wolff v. Wolff, 112 Nev. 1355, 929 P.2d 916 (1996) (holding that an award of spousal support will not be disturbed on appeal unless it appears from the record that the district court abused its discretion); Sprenger v. Sprenger, 110 Nev. 855, 878 P.2d 284 (1994) (concluding that an award of attorney's fees in divorce proceedings lies within the sound discretion of the trial judge). Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.
