ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

On March 1, 2000, appellant filed a notice of withdrawal of appeal. The notice of withdrawal is signed by appellant and states that appellant's counsel has explained the legal consequences, benefits and drawbacks of proceeding in this manner and that having been so informed and with full understanding of that information appellant consents to withdrawal of this appeal. The notice also includes a verification by appellant's counsel that counsel has explained to appellant the legal consequences, benefits and drawbacks of proceeding in this matter and that appellant understood the same and knowingly signed the notice of withdrawal of appeal. Accordingly, pursuant to appellant's notice of withdrawal filed on March 1, 2000, we hereby dismiss this appeal.

It is so ORDERED.
