ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION

This is an original proper person petition for a writ of prohibition challenging a district court order denying a motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction. We have considered this petition for a writ of prohibition and the answer thereto, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. Accordingly, we deny the petition. See NRAP 21(b); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849 (1991).

It is so ORDERED.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>We note that the petition was procedurally flawed in several respects, and could have been dismissed on these reasons alone. Specifically, the petition did not include proof of service on the district judge; the petition did not include an affidavit of the beneficially-interested party; the petition did not provide portions of the record essential to understanding the petition; and the petitioner did not file the required six copies of his petition. See NRS 34.330; NRAP 21(a) & (d).
