ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a district court order revoking appellant Eric Alan Christensen's probation. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Brent T. Adams, Judge.

Christensen claims the district court abused its discretion by revoking his probation after counsel stated that he waived his right to a hearing pursuant to Anaya v. State, 96 Nev. 119, 606 P.2d 156 (1980), and conceded that he violated its conditions. Christensen, however, offers no persuasive authority to support his contention that the district court must personally canvass him to confirm that he agrees with counsel's representations. At the revocation hearing, the district court was informed that Christensen stopped complying with the terms of his probation and found that his conduct was not as good as required by the conditions of his probation. We conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion by revoking Christensen's probation, see Lewis v. State, 90 Nev. 436, 438, 529 P.2d 796, 797 (1974); McNallen v. State, 91

Nev. 592, 540 P.2d 121 (1975) (revocation of probation affirmed where violation by probationer not refuted), and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
