ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

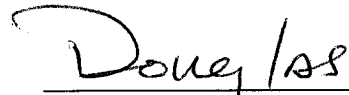

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion to modify or correct sentence.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Abbi Silver, Judge.

In his motion filed on June 6, 2011, appellant claimed that the victim exaggerated her statements to the police and in her testimony; consequently, he claimed that he should be convicted of the crimes of battery/domestic violence and joyriding rather than coercion and possession of a stolen vehicle, the charges to which appellant entered a guilty plea. Appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Appellant failed to demonstrate that his sentence was facially illegal and that the district court lacked jurisdiction. See id. We ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

therefore conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motion. Accordingly, we
