ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This proper person petition for a writ of mandamus challenges the district court's actions in setting a hearing at which to consider the real party in interest's request for a preliminary injunction. Petitioner asserts that the district court does not have jurisdiction over the case, as he has filed a notice of removal with the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

We have considered this petition for a writ of mandamus, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. Accordingly, we deny the petition. See NRAP 21(b); State ex rel. Dep't Transp. v. Thompson, 99 Nev. 358, 662 P.2d 1338 (1983); see also 28 U.S.C. §1446(d) (providing that notice of removal is effective when filed with the clerk of the state court in which such action is pending); NRAP 3A(b) (2) (providing that an appeal may be taken from an order granting an injunction).

It is so ORDERED.
