DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION

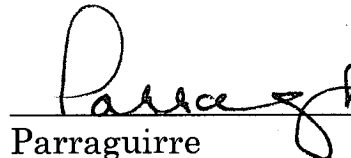

This original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition requests this court to preclude the State from seeking the death penalty on the grounds that (1) the State has no evidence establishing that petitioner killed or participated in the killing of the victim, (2) the sole use of post-mortem mutilation to support a death sentence violates the Eighth Amendment, and (3) mutilation as a prohibited activity to support a death sentence is unconstitutionally vague and overbroad. Having considered the petition and supporting documents, we conclude that extraordinary relief is not warranted because petitioner has an adequate remedy by way of an appeal should he be convicted and sentenced to death. NRS 34.170;

NRS 34.330; State v. Dist. Ct. (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). Accordingly, we deny the petition. See NRAP 21(b).

It is so ORDERED.
