ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

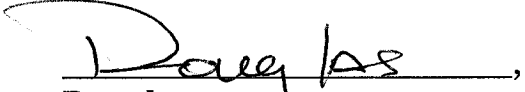

This is a proper person appeal from an order denying a motion for sentence modification.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Doug Smith, Judge.

In his motion filed on November 4, 2011, appellant claimed that his sentence was based upon mistakes of fact in his presentence investigation report. Appellant failed to identify any mistake of fact, and thus failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Appellant also appeared to raise arguments challenging his plea negotiations. However, to the extent that appellant sought to challenge the validity of his guilty plea, such a challenge is outside the scope of claims permissible in a motion to modify a sentence. See id. We therefore ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motion.
Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
