ORDER DISMISSING PETITION AND APPEAL

On August 31, 2000, the parties to the above-captioned matters filed a joint motion to dismiss these matters. The motion requested this court to enter an order granting various forms of relief. On September 8, 2000, we entered an order concluding that the relief requested in the joint motion must be sought in the district court and that, therefore, the parties must comply with the procedures for remand set forth in Huneycutt v. Huneycutt, 94 Nev. 79, 575

P.2d 585 (1978). Accordingly, we deferred ruling on the joint motion, pending compliance with Huneycutt.

On November 8, 2000, petitioners/appellants filed with this court an order of the district court certifying that upon remand it is inclined to grant the parties' requested relief. See Huneycutt v. Huneycutt, 94 Nev. 79, 575 P.2d 585 (1978). Cause appearing, we grant the parties' joint motion. Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal and petition, and we remand these matters to the district court pursuant to its certification.

It is so ORDERED.
