ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This appeal was initiated by the filing of a proper person notice of appeal. The notice of appeal states that appellant “does hereby give Notice of Appeal [to this court] for post-conviction – habeas corpus.” Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Janet J. Berry, Judge.

Our review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. While a district court order denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus is substantively appealable, no order denying such a petition has been filed in the district court. Moreover, it appears that no such petition was ever filed in the district court. To the extent that appellant appeals from the judgment of conviction that was entered on October 17, 2011, the notice of appeal is untimely. See NRAP 4(b)(1)(A) (prescribing 30-day appeal period following entry of judgment). We lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, see Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 352, 871 P.2d 944, 946 (1994), therefore, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
