ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

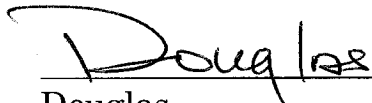

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion to modify sentence.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Valorie J. Vega, Judge.

In his motion, filed on December 6, 2011, appellant claimed that the presentence report incorrectly stated that appellant had spent time in the California Youth Authority. He claims that this information worked to his extreme detriment. Appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). At sentencing, appellant informed the district court that this information was incorrect. Further, it appears that the sentence was based on the facts of the instant crime where appellant shot three police officers rather than the California Youth ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

Authority information in the presentence report. We therefore conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motion, and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
