DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

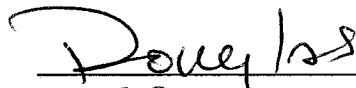

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; James M. Bixler, Judge.

In his motion filed on November 29, 2011, appellant claimed that his habitual criminal sentence was illegal because the district court failed to first sentence him for the primary offenses and hold a separate hearing as to the habitual criminal adjudication. Appellant failed to demonstrate that his sentence was facially illegal or that the district court lacked jurisdiction. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

321, 324 (1996). We therefore conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motion. Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
