ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

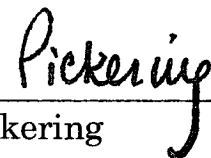

This is an appeal from an amended judgment of conviction, pursuant to a guilty plea, of luring children or mentally ill persons with use of technology with the intent to engage in sexual conduct. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Valorie J. Vega, Judge.

Appellant claims that his prison sentence of 24 to 60 months is so disproportionate to the crime that it constitutes cruel and unusual punishment. Appellant did not file a timely notice of appeal from the original judgment of conviction, see NRAP 4(b)(1)(A), and, although the amended judgment of conviction added lifetime supervision, it did not alter the term of imprisonment imposed in the original judgment of conviction. Therefore, this claim is not properly raised in this appeal and we decline to address the merit of this claim. Because appellant has not demonstrated any error with respect to the amended judgment of conviction, we

ORDER the amended judgment of conviction AFFIRMED.
