ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction, pursuant to a jury verdict, of malicious injury to a vehicle and battery by a prisoner. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Ronald J. Israel, Judge.

Appellant Joseph Bonnie argues that the district court erred by denying his motion to sever his trial from that of his codefendant because the evidence against his codefendant was so overwhelming that joinder deprived him of a fair trial and that he was prevented from confronting his codefendant's confession. Bonnie failed to provide this court with the transcript of arguments related to his motion to sever or the district court's denial of said motion. Bonnie also failed to provide complete trial transcripts which are necessary to consider his claims. "It is appellant's responsibility to make an adequate appellate record." Johnson v. State, 113 Nev. 772, 776, 942 P.2d 167, 170 (1997). Because the record provided does not properly establish any lower court error which has been preserved for appellate review, we conclude that Bonnie failed to demonstrate that he is entitled to relief. See id. Accordingly, we
