ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus. Petitioner seeks an order compelling the district court to issue an order deciding his post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. We have reviewed the documents submitted in this matter, and without deciding upon the merits of any claims raised therein, we decline to exercise original jurisdiction in this matter. See NRS 34.160; NRS 34.170. It appears that petitioner is represented by the federal public defender below; petitioner should proceed by and through his counsel. Further, in light of the status checks conducted by the district court, this court is confident that the district court will resolve this matter as expeditiously as its calendar permits.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.

<sup>1</sup>To the extent appellant seeks a district court order resolving his June 26, 1997, post-conviction petition, we note that this court already affirmed the district court's denial of this petition. Doyle v. State, 116 Nev. 148, 995 P.2d 465 (2000).
