ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY R. Malone
DEPUTY CLERK

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court dismissing a petition for judicial review. This appeal was docketed without the requisite filing fee. In response to a notice from this court to pay the filing fee, appellant filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. That motion was denied and appellant was directed to file the motion in district court as required by NRAP 24(a). Appellant informed this court that the district court refused to consider his motion.

On September 19, 2013, this court entered an order directing appellant to renew his motion in the district court. To date, appellant has not renewed his motion in district court, nor has he responded to this court's order in any way. This court concludes that appellant has abandoned this appeal, and this appeal is accordingly dismissed.

It is so ORDERED.
