ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a request for a trial de novo after court-annexed arbitration. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Gloria Sturman, Judge.

In their timely September 24, 2012, response to this court's order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, appellants agreed that a final judgment has not been entered under NAR 18(F). Appellants asserted that the case had been transferred to a different department and indicated that they would seek a final judgment from that department, but to date, no such judgment has been submitted to this court. Accordingly, as appellants have not demonstrated jurisdiction, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
