ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

Proper person appellant seeks to challenge a district court order granting in forma pauperis status.¹ As no statute or court rule authorizes an appeal from the challenged order, it is not substantively appealable. See NRAP 3A(b) (listing orders and judgments from which an appeal may be taken); see also Taylor Constr. Co. v. Hilton Hotels, 100 Nev. 207, 209, 678 P.2d 1152, 1153 (1984). As we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.

¹In his notice of appeal, appellant states that he seeks to challenge an order denying his application for in forma pauperis status, but the documents transmitted to this court with the notice of appeal, including a copy of the challenged district court's order, show that the court granted appellant's application.
