ORDER DENYING PETITION

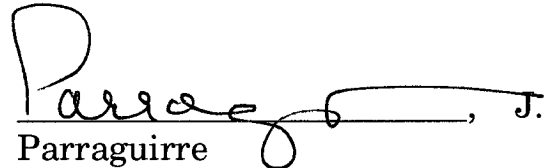

This is a proper person petition for a writ of prohibition and other extraordinary relief. Petitioner seeks an order preventing the State from recharging her in a case where she was already convicted. She also filed several motions requesting various forms of relief from this court. We have reviewed the documents submitted in this matter, and without deciding upon the merits of any claims raised therein, we decline to exercise original jurisdiction in this matter. See NRS 34.320; NRS 34.330. A challenge to the validity of the judgment of conviction must be raised in a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed in the district court in the first instance.¹ NRS 34.724(2)(b); NRS 34.738(1).

Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.²

¹We express no opinion as to whether petitioner could meet the procedural requirements of NRS chapter 34.

²Appellant has submitted a proper person letter and motion to declare an unconstitutional sentence. We direct the clerk of this court to file the documents received on September 11, 2012. Having reviewed the documents, we conclude that no relief is warranted.
