ORDER DENYING PETITION

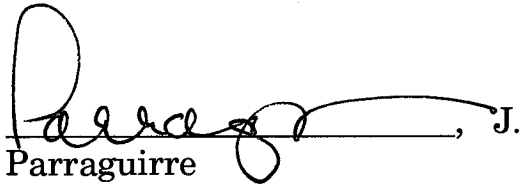

This original petition for a writ of mandamus challenges a district court order affirming petitioner's conviction in justice court for DUI. Petitioner argues that the State produced insufficient evidence to support his conviction and therefore the district court erred by affirming his conviction. The district court enjoys final appellate jurisdiction in cases arising from justice court. Nev. Const. art. 6, § 6. As petitioner has appealed his conviction to the district court and apparently raised his insufficiency-of-the-evidence claim, he had a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law. NRS 34.170. Additionally, petitioner failed to demonstrate that the district court manifestly abused its discretion in resolving the appeal of his conviction. See NRS 34.160. Because petitioner has failed to show that our intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
