ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a pre-filing injunction based upon a determination that appellant is a vexatious litigant. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michael Villani, Judge.

Because no statute or court rule permits an appeal from an injunction entered in a criminal case, we lack jurisdiction.<sup>1</sup> Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990). Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.

<sup>1</sup>It appears that if any remedy from the pre-filing injunction is available in this case it is by an original petition for a writ of prohibition, NRS 34.320; NRAP 21, arguing that the district court has exceeded its jurisdiction in preventing appellant from filing documents collaterally attacking his judgment of conviction. Similarly, the failure to file a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus submitted by appellant may be challenged in an original petition for a writ of mandamus. See NRS 34.160; NRAP 21.
