ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Adriana Escobar, Judge.

In his petition filed on October 15, 2012, appellant claimed that the prison was incorrectly classifying him as a "violent" offender and that he was entitled to 40% off of the front end of his sentence pursuant to NRS 209.4465. Appellant's claim regarding his prison classification was not cognizable in a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed in state court, as it challenged only the conditions of confinement. See Bowen v. Warden, 100 Nev. 489, 489, 686 P.2d 250, 250 (1984). As to his ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Luckett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

Although the notice of appeal was initially filed in district court case no. A670193, this appeal was submitted under district court case no. A670107 because the district court correctly dismissed A670193 as a duplicate of A670107.

claim regarding the computation of time served, he failed to explain why he should receive a reduction in his sentence and failed to demonstrate that he had not received the proper amount of credits. Accordingly, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying this petition, and we
