ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a petition for judicial review. Appellant, Linda Hirschfield, filed a claim for workers' compensation benefits, alleging that she experienced sore wrists and hands after scanning merchandise for her employer/respondent, Dillard's Department Store. An appeals officer determined that Hirschfield failed to establish that her hand condition arose out of and in the course of her employment. Having fully reviewed the briefs and the record, we conclude that substantial evidence supports the appeals officer's decision.¹ We therefore

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
