TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

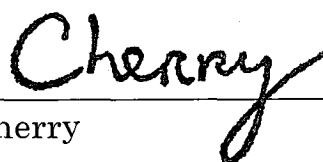

Appellant seeks to challenge the district court's oral ruling denying reconsideration of the denial of a motion to strike. No appeal may be taken, however, from a district court's oral ruling. Rust v. Clark Cnty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 689, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987). Moreover, as no final judgment has been entered, Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000) (providing that a final judgment is one that disposes of all issues pending in a case and leaves nothing for the district court to resolve except for post-judgment matters such as attorney fees and costs), and no statute or court rule authorizes an appeal from the decision appellant seeks to challenge, see NRAP 3A(b) (setting forth the orders and decisions from which an appeal may be taken); Taylor Constr. Co. v. Hilton Hotels, Corp., 100 Nev. 207, 678 P.2d 1152 (1984) (pointing out that this court generally has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when authorized by statute or court rule), even if a written order had been entered, the challenged ruling would not be appealable. Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction, we
