ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

Our review of the documents before us in these proper person appeals from the same underlying district court action reveals jurisdictional defects. Specifically, it appears that neither the order granting partial summary judgment challenged in Docket No. 64657 nor the order regarding the scheduled trial date challenged in Docket No. 64898 are final, appealable judgments. See NRAP 3A(b)(1) (providing for an appeal from a final judgment in an action or proceeding). A final judgment is one that disposes of all issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the district court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney fees and costs. Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000). Accordingly, as it appears that a final judgment has not been entered in the underlying case, we lack jurisdiction to consider these appeals, and we

ORDER these appeals DISMISSED.<sup>1</sup>
