DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

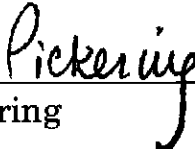

This appeal was initiated by the filing of a proper person notice of appeal.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Abbi Silver, Judge.

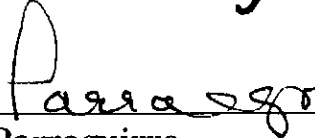

Appellant filed a proper person notice of appeal on April 22, 2014, indicating that he wished to appeal based upon newly discovered evidence, fraud and perjury. Appellant did not indicate the date upon which any motion was denied, and our review of the record does not reveal an appealable order was entered around the time of his notice of appeal. The documents before this court indicate that during the litigation of appellant's motion for a new trial, appellant's counsel appeared before the court on April 8, 2014, and advised the court that they were not proceeding on the motion. This is not an appealable decision. To the extent that appellant is challenging prior counsel's decision to withdraw ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

an appeal from the judgment of conviction in 2013, see Jones v. State, Docket No. 62045 (Order Dismissing Appeal, January 24, 2013), this is also not an appealable decision. Because appellant has failed to designate an appealable order, we
