ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

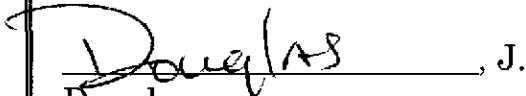

This is a pro se appeal from a district court order dismissing a tort action. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kerry Louise Earley, Judge.

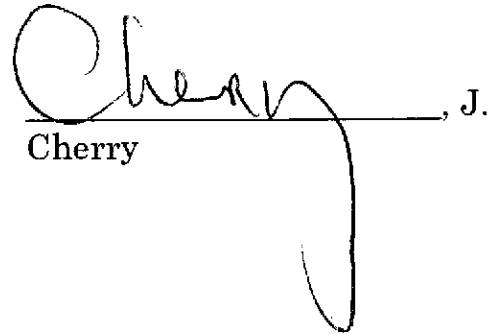

On appeal, appellant contends that the district court erred in refusing to strike respondent's answer and amended answer to appellant's complaint and in permitting respondent to file a second amended answer to appellant's complaint. Having considered these arguments and the record on appeal, we agree with the district court that appellant was not entitled to a default judgment and, thus, that appellant was not prejudiced by these alleged errors. Similarly, we conclude that appellant was not prejudiced by having his action initially placed into the court-annexed arbitration program. We therefore

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.¹

¹In light of our disposition of this appeal, no further action needs to be taken with regard to appellant's June 2, 2014, motion for expedited consideration. Because we do not believe that this appeal meets NRAP 36(c)'s criteria for rendering a disposition as a published opinion, we decline appellant's request in that regard.
