ORDER DECLINING TO IMPOSE TEMPORARY SUSPENSION

This is a petition by bar counsel pursuant to SCR 111(4) concerning attorney Jared M. Moser. The petition is based on Moser's conviction in Henderson Township Justice Court, Clark County, Nevada, pursuant to his nolo contendere plea, of first-offence driving under the influence.¹ See SCR 111(1). Moser reported his conviction to bar counsel as required by SCR 111(2).

Because Moser's conviction is not one of those specifically discussed in SCR 111(6)-(8) as a "serious" crime requiring suspension and automatic referral to the disciplinary board, temporary suspension and referral to the disciplinary board are discretionary with this court. SCR 111(9).

Moser's conviction is not the type of offense for which professional discipline is typically imposed. See 2 Geoffrey C. Hazard, Jr.,

¹As part of the plea, the driving under the influence charges against Moser were amended to reckless driving.

W. William Hodes & Peter R. Jarvis, The Law of Lawyering § 65.4 (3d ed. 2012) (stating that while the gravity of drinking and driving cannot be minimized, a first-offense misdemeanor driving under the influence is not the type of offense for which professional discipline is typically imposed). Accordingly, having considered the petition and the supporting documentation, we conclude that Moser's offense does not warrant the imposition of a temporary suspension or referral to the disciplinary board at this time.

It is so ORDERED.
