ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a final judgment entered by the district court in favor of respondent, Caesars Palace Corporation. Appellant, Lois Croft, brought this action for retaliatory discharge against Caesars after Caesars terminated her employment. Croft had sustained injuries in an on-the-job accident the previous year and was terminated during the pendency of her worker's compensation claim. Following a bench trial, the district court determined that Caesars did not retaliate against Croft for filing a worker's compensation claim and that Caesars' termination of Croft was not actionable or tortious. Having fully reviewed the briefs and the record, we conclude that there is substantial evidence to support the district court's decision.¹ Accordingly, we
