ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL AS ABANDONED

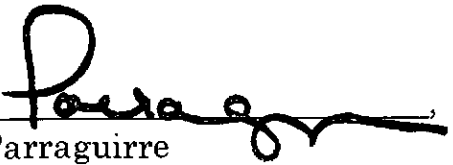

This proper person appeal was docketed in this court on October 16, 2014, without payment of the requisite filing fee. That same day, this court mailed appellant a notice directing appellant to pay the filing fee within ten days. The notice further advised that failure to pay the filing fee within ten days would result in the dismissal of this appeal.

On October 20, 2014, the notice was returned by the United States Postal Service to this court with an advisement that the forwarding time had expired. Accordingly, this court re-mailed the notice to appellant at the address indicated by the postal service on the returned mail. On November 17, 2014, the notice was again returned by the United States Postal Service to this court, with an advisement that it was not deliverable as addressed and that they were unable to forward it.

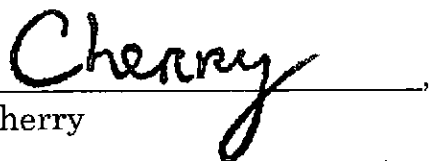

To date, appellant has not paid the filing fee or otherwise responded to this court's notice regarding the fee. In addition, appellant has not provided this court with a valid mailing address or other contact information.¹ Thus, it appears that appellant has abandoned this appeal. Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal as abandoned.

It is so ORDERED.

¹ In addition, we note that on December 11, 2014, a copy of a district court order was filed in this court which directed appellant to file an amended application to waive fees and costs. It was accompanied by documentation indicating that it too had been returned by the United States Postal Service to the district court with an advisement that the forwarding time had expired.
