ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

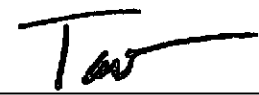

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence. Tenth Judicial District Court, Churchill County; Robert E. Estes, Senior Judge.

Appellant Scott Ernest Bruyere claims the district court erred by denying his motion without making any reference or finding as to the constitutionality of NRS 202.360. To the extent Bruyere even challenged the constitutionality of the statute in the district court, his challenge fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion to correct an illegal sentence. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). The district court specifically found Bruyere was convicted of felon in possession of a firearm pursuant to his guilty plea, he was sentenced to a prison term of 28 to 72 months, and his sentence did not exceed the maximum sentence provided by NRS 202.360(1)—the controlling statute. We conclude the district court did not err in denying Bruyere's motion, and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
