CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from an order to show cause holding appellant's counsel in contempt and ordering interpleader of settlement funds. Our preliminary review of the documents before this court revealed a potential jurisdictional defect; specifically, it appeared that no statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order holding a party's attorney in contempt or from an order directing a party to interplead funds. Accordingly, we directed appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for this court's lack of jurisdiction.

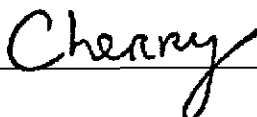

In his response to our order appellant concedes that no statute or court rule allows for this appeal. Appellant therefore asks this court to construe the appeal as a petition for extraordinary relief pursuant to our holding in Clark Cnty. Liquor & Gaming Licensing Bd. v. Clark, 102 Nev. 654, 657-58, 730 P.2d 443, 446 (1986). Respondent has filed a reply. We have considered the arguments of the parties, and we decline to grant appellant's request. This appeal is dismissed. The appeal's dismissal is without prejudice to appellant's right to pursue alternative relief by way of a petition for extraordinary writ relief.

It is so ORDERED.
