ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

These appeals were initiated by pro se appellant from decisions of the district court granting a motion to vacate judgment, denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus, denying a motion challenging the district court's decision to toll a speedy trial, and denying a motion to cure jurisdictional defects and a speedy trial violation. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Douglas Smith, Judge.

Our preliminary review of these appeals reveals jurisdictional defects. Specifically, the district court granted appellant the relief he requested in his motion to vacate judgment and appellant is not aggrieved by that decision, see NRS 177.015 (only allowing an appeal in a criminal action by an aggrieved party), and no appeal lies from decisions denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus, Gary v. Sheriff, 96 Nev. 78, 605 P.2d 212 (1980) (no appeal lies from an order denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus), a motion challenging the district court's decision to toll a speedy trial, and a motion to cure jurisdictional defects and a speedy trial violation, see Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990) (right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider the appeals, and we

ORDER the appeals DISMISSED.¹
