ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order granting summary judgment in favor of respondents on several of appellant's causes of action and consolidating two district court cases. The district court's order indicates that several claims remain pending below, so it is not a final judgment. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 810 P.2d 1217 (1991) (holding that order which does not resolve all claims as to all parties is not a final judgment).

The right to appeal is statutory; if no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists. See Taylor Constr. Co. v. Hilton Hotels, 100 Nev. 207, 678 P.2d 1152 (1984); Kokkos v. Tsalikis, 91 Nev. 24, 530 P.2d 756 (1975). Here, the order appealed from is neither a final judgment nor independently appealable. See NRAP 3A(b).

Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.¹

¹We note that appellant has failed to pay the filing fee mandated by NRS 2.250. This constitutes an independent basis for dismissing this appeal.
